artist. songwriter. musician. producer.

Every artist is a culmination of several great sonic loves throughout their lifetime. Meagan Allen, an independent country/americana artist & songwriter with a distinct cowboy noir flair, is no different. Meagan thrives in her traditionally country home-base, Nashville, Tennessee, drawing from both country from the 80s & 90s and crooner jazz from the 50s to make for a fresh and unique sound. This sound is perfectly showcased in her newest songs, the first of which will be heard by the world on August 11th of this year.

Hailing from Houston, Texas, Meagan has written and performed original music since the age of 11. She made her debut at the young age of fourteen with her first single, entitled "Worn Out Photographs", and, soon after, released a ten track album through Sweekman Productions, entitled Critical Emotion. This album, as well as her 2019 single "Show Me How You Love", appeared on the Grammy Ballots in their respective years.

In 2018, Meagan made her dream move to Nashville, attending and completing Belmont University's Songwriting and Music Business programs.

Today, Meagan tours her own music and the music of others, performing and playing fiddle across the country. Her first single of this year, a riotously fun track entitled "Kiss A Redneck," will be released on all streaming platforms on August 11th, 2023. It encourages all listeners to go back to country roots they may not even know they have.

In regards to her upcoming releases, Meagan could not be more excited: "I'm just so happy to bring my listeners into this new, fresh sound I've been working on. I couldn't be prouder of our work!."

At home or on the road, Meagan continues to stride towards new heights as she enters a new chapter of her career.
